Education and Experience

Ashleigh Taylor-Schmidt earned her Masters of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine degree from Southwest Acupuncture College in August 2018. This program consisted of 3,500 hours of education including 1,000 hours of clinical practice. She was certified as a Diplomate in Acupuncture, Oriental Medicine and Chinese Herbology by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) in September 2018. This included earning a certification in Clean Needle Technique.

Ashleigh's training includes adjunctive therapies, such as herbal medicine, moxibustion, Tui Na, Shiatsu, acupressure, cupping, auricular therapy, as well as special training in pediatric care, women's health, sleep disorders, physical trauma and diet and lifestyle coaching.

Ashleigh is a member of the Acupuncture Association of Colorado and the American Association of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine. She is a licensed acupuncturist in the state of Colorado. This licensure has never been suspended or revoked.

This clinic complies with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment, including the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles and sanitation of acupuncture offices. Only single-use, disposable factory-sterilized needles are used.
